Let me be with him

I can never find comfort nor can my eyes
Ever since he has gone, my laughs all were gone
Ever since he has gone, my laughs all were gone

Ever since he has gone, my laughs all were gone
Ever since he has gone, my laughs all were gone

Oh my years, come back
Oh my years, come back
Bring back my love, and let me be with him
Oh my years, come back
Oh my years, come back
Bring me back the nights that I didn't live with him

Where is he, the one who used to check up on me every night
He has gone away from my eyes, and stopped asking about me
He has gone away from my eyes, and stopped asking about me

Where is he, the one who used to check up on me every night
He has gone away from my eyes, and stopped asking about me
He has gone away from my eyes, and stopped asking about me

Oh my years, come back
Oh my years, come back
Bring back my love, and let me be with him
Oh my years, come back
Oh my years, come back
Bring me back the nights that I didn't live with him

Oh my years, come back
Oh my years, come back
Bring back my love, and let me be with him
Oh my years, come back
Oh my years, come back
Bring me back the nights that I didn't live with him

Oh my years, come back
Oh my years, come back
Bring back my love, and let me be with him
Oh my years, come back
Oh my years, come back
Bring me back the nights that I didn't live with him
